

JANUARY 2018

Back to School Deliveries

To all our valued Tuckshop/Canteen customers.

In order to ensure that you get your delivery in a timely manner, we are asking our school customers to consider having their back to school delivery in the week commencing Monday 15th January, 2018.

This will ensure that you have enough time to prepare for your first day of serving and ensure that you are fully stocked and ready to go.

When you place your ONLINE order please enter your preferred delivery date. And in the notes section please enter a second date along with your MOBILE phone number.

Your driver will contact on the date specified via mobile, to let you know they are on their way to your school.

If your preferred delivery date is not available you will be contacted and advised of the new date via mobile or SMS text message prior to the nominated delivery date.

Thank you for your assistance and if you have any questions please contact our telesales team on 7) 3354 8300 or email: sales@qualityfoods.com.au

Quality Food Services Team.