COMPETITION TIME!

At Science Supply Australia we love coming up with new ideas! To celebrate the Year of the Periodic Table our staff have thought we run a competition for Laboratory Staff to come up with a creative T-shirt using the Elements of the Periodic Table.

The winner will have their t-shirt made up for Free! We will then have the T-shirts available for customers to purchase to celebrate the Year of the Periodic Table! T-shirt will be launched at a special event.

Conditions apply. The design will be used by Science Supply Australia.
